RON SATIJA represents creditors, trustees, committees, businesses and individuals in bankruptcy proceedings and related litigation. He also represents parties in bankruptcy planning, as well as formulating cost-effective bankruptcy alternatives. These representations include devising strategies to target or dispose of distressed assets, debt restructuring, corporate dissolutions, and counseling financially distressed companies.

He is also a court-appointed fiduciary serving the Bankruptcy Court of the Western District of Texas as a Chapter 7 Trustee as well as Chapter 11 Liquidating Trustee. In this capacity, he liquidates bankruptcy estate assets, including real property, business interests, inventory, accounts receivable, and litigation claims. He is also available as a receiver in federal receiverships.
